*Heraklion/CretaPREMIUM TOUR: PALACE OF KNOSSOS AND AROLITHOS VILLAGE*In a nutshell

The cradle of Minoan civilization, Crete will surprise us with its archaeological patrimony as we embark on an awe-inspiring trip, reliving the myth of Minos at the Palace of Knossos before diving into Cretan culture in a traditional village where time seems to stand still.

Main stops

- Palace of Knossos
- Arolithos and Museum of agricultural history and popular art

The programme

- We will leave the port of Heraklion by coach to head for our first destination: the Palace of Knossos.
- Situated on the top of a hill, from which we enjoy a breathtaking view of the place where the city once stood, the palace is an important testament to a civilization dating back to 3000 BC. Brought to light thanks to excavations by Sir Arthur Evans, the palace is one of Greece's most important archaeological sites. We will visit the throne room, the storerooms, the central court and the imposing stairway, reliving the myth of Minos. It is believed that the palace is linked to the myth of the labyrinth and the Minotaur due to the number of rooms it possessed (probably more than 1000 originally).
- Still impressed by the historic and architectonic wonders of the Palace of Knossos, we re-board the coach and ready ourselves for some Cretan culture in the characteristic village of Arolithos. Reconstructed using the same techniques that were used in the past, this village will charm us with its otherworldly atmosphere. We will walk along the pebbled streets, home to traditional crafts shops where the artisans produce ceramics and inlaid wooden articles. We are struck by the scent of bread as we pass in front of the traditional bakery and are enchanted by the small village church and the traditional 'Cafenion' café. Before returning to the port, we will retrace the history of Cretan culture by visiting the Museum of agricultural history and popular art.
- Places on this excursion are limited. So please reserve early.
- We recommended wearing comfortable shoes and clothing.
- This tour is not recommended for guests with mobility problems.

EXPERIENCE: THE ARKADI MONASTERY AND RETHYMNO

In a nutshell

From the magnificence of the Arkadi Monastery, a symbol of the Cretan people's fight for independence from the Turks, to the Venetian atmosphere of Rethymno, an undeniably fascinating melting pot of art and history.

Main stops

- Arkadi Monastery
- Rethymno: ancient Venetian loggia, Neratze mosque, Great Gate, Rimondi Square (external visit)

The programme

- We leave the port of Heraklion by coach and head for the Arkadi monastery, the island's most famous monastery, which is composed of a series of fortified buildings. Legend has it that it was built by Emperor Flavius Heraclius Augustus and reconstructed around the 5th century by Byzantine emperor Arcadius, from whom it takes its name, while other sources report that it was founded by a monk named Arcadius.
- The central courtyard is beautiful and houses the church dedicated to Saint Constantine, Saint Helen and Our Father. The monastery also symbolises the fight for independence from the Turks. In 1866, many Cretan people took refuge here to defend themselves from the Ottomans and, rather than surrender, they blew up the armoury, sacrificing their own lives.
- We will continue on to Rethymno, capital of a region whose great cultural heritage dates back to the Minoan age and has its main centre in Cydonia. There is, almost unexpectedly, a Venetian atmosphere in the historic city centre (palia poli): the Venetians in fact, having conquered the island, decided to create a commercial base here, between Heraklion and Chania. Every corner of the city is still imbued its old, aristocratic character, from the 16th century buildings to the arched porticoes, from the stone stairs to magnificent remains from the Greek, Roman and Byzantine eras, from the maze of streets to the small Venetian port. In the ancient Venetian loggia we find the information office of the Ministry of Culture.
- All that remains is for us to visit the other places of interest, the marvellous Neratze mosque, which was completed in 1657, the Guora Gate - the main gate of the 16th century wall - and lastly, Rimondi square.
- Before returning we can explore every corner of this marvellous city, a rare treasure of art and history: the marvellous Neratze mosque, which was completed in 1657, the Guora Gate, the main gate of the 16th century wall, and lastly Rimondi square.

- Places on this excursion are limited. So please reserve early.
- The coach transfer from the port to the Arcadi Monastery takes approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes.

THE WONDERS OF CRETE: KNOSSOS, KRITSÀ AND AGIOS NIKOLAOS

In a nutshell

A journey through time to discover the history of the island of Crete, the cradle of a thousand-year old civilization and a treasure chest of historic and natural wonders. From the palace that gave birth to the myth of the Minotaur to the characteristic village of Kritsà, we explore some of the most inspiring sites on the island, before concluding our day beautifully with a walk to Agios Nikolaos and a dive into its clear waters.

Main stops

- Palace of Knossos
- Kritsà and church of Panagia Kera
- Agios Nikolaos and relaxation time

The programme

- Leaving Heraklion, we make our way to our first destination: Knossos, the ancient capital of the great kingdom of Minos, which, considering its area, is thought to have been home to 100,000 people. Testament to the ancient Minoan civilization, the original Minoan palace dated to 1900 BC. It was destroyed by an earthquake two hundred years later and reconstructed in much more extravagant fashion in 1700 BC. The final catastrophe struck between 1500 and 1450 BC, when the earthquake caused by the eruption of the Santorini volcano destroyed the royal residence for good.
- Situated on the top of a hill, from which we enjoy a breathtaking view of the place where the city once stood, the palace is an important testament to a civilization dating back to 3000 BC. Brought to light thanks to excavations by Sir Arthur Evans, the palace is one of Greece's most important archaeological sites. - We return to the coach to finish our day beautifully by visiting Agios Nikolaos, a wonderful coastal tourist town that will delight us with its seafront, fascinating craft shops and typical open-air bars, where we can enjoy a coffee and some relaxation time.
- Before returning to the port, we can tickle our palates in one of the typical taverns or enjoy the sun and the sea on the nearby beach, the perfect end to a day spent amongst the wonders of an island that is ours to discover.

NATURE BECOMES ART IN GAUDI'S BARCELONA

In a nutshell

With an exclusive Costa guide, discover how the artist transformed glimpses of Catalan nature into works of art, as you wander between the tree-columns of the Sagrada Família, under the caves and snowy peaks of Casa Milà and through the shapes of Casa Batlló.

- Casa Milà: external visit
- Walking tour on the Passeig de Gràcia

- Take a closer look: do you see the animals on the Nativity facade? Chameleons and doves in flight, but also two enormous turtles, symbols of land and sea.

- As you move to a different area of the city, the natural scenery changes with you. At Casa Milà, you'll find yourself in front of a mountain range with cave-like windows, iron decorations that look like brambles, and a roof as white as the snowy peaks.
